INVITATION

– INTERNATIONAL BOXING TOURNAMENT –

Open to all Portuguese and International Boxing Nations and Clubs

Dear Coaches and Peers,

Welcome to Odivelas, Lisbon – Portugal!

My name is Bruno Carvalho, head coach at Privilégio Boxing Club and organizer of the Odivelas Box Cup.

The Odivelas Box Cup is an international boxing tournament organized by Privilégio Boxing Club, in partnership with the Odivelas City Council, and held under the supervision of the Portuguese Boxing Federation and the Lisbon Boxing Association.

This tournament was born out of a strong desire to fill the gap left by the lack of international boxing competitions in Portugal. We were proud to be pioneers in creating a high-level boxing event in our country, open to all age groups and offering a unique competitive experience against athletes from various countries – including those competing at top European, World, and Olympic levels.

INVITATION

Over the years, the success and example of the Odivelas Box Cup have inspired the creation of similar events, and today, Portugal proudly hosts several internationally recognized boxing competitions, strengthening our position on the global stage.

In 2025, our goal is to raise the competitive level and deliver a tournament exclusively for Elite athletes, both male and female, with over 25 official bouts on their record.

We aim to provide a high-quality competition, designed for National Teams and Clubs.

We aim to offer a high-quality competition that contributes to the growth of boxing in Portugal, while giving our National Team and portuguese clubs the opportunity to compete at a level equivalent to the world's leading boxing nations.

Our ambition is to recreate in Odivelas the spirit and excitement of major international events, like those leading up to the Paris 2024 Olympic Games, and to make the Odivelas Box Cup an unforgettable memory for every athlete, coach, and fan who joins us.

Welcome to the ring where passion, talent, and sportsmanship come together.

Welcome to the Odivelas Box Cup!

Best Regards,

Bruno Carvalho

TRAVEL, TRANSFERS & ACCOMMODATION:

- To ensure a smooth experience during your stay in Portugal, please take note of the following logistical guidelines regarding travel, local transportation, and accommodation:

– Travel and Local Transfers

- All participating teams are fully responsible for organizing their own travel arrangements to and from Portugal, including airport arrivals and departures;
- Additionally, each team must manage their own daily transfers between their accommodation and the event venue;
- For convenient local transportation, we recommend the use of ride-hailing applications such as Uber or Bolt, which are widely available in the Lisbon metropolitan area;
- Public transport is also a reliable and cost-effective option: taxis, buses, and the metro system provide excellent connectivity between Lisbon and Odivelas, ensuring easy access to and from the event location.

– Accommodation

- All teams are likewise responsible for booking their own accommodation during their stay in Portugal.
- We suggest using trusted online platforms such as Airbnb or Booking.com, which offer a wide range of lodging options to suit different budgets and group sizes.
- Teams may choose to stay in Odivelas, close to the event venue, or in Lisbon, which offers a broader selection of hotels and services with quick transport links to Odivelas.
